NEWS & TALK in the morning - MUSIC noon til sunrise

Our DJs and show hosts curate and create unique connection across the airwaves for all of you every day. In August one of our DJs created a tribute show in memoriam to late community member Dustin Stuhr. Another curated an entire radio music hour exclusively from music checked out from the Tompkins County Public Library. Our show hosts dive deep into a wealth of news, music, and community relationships to enrich our airwaves and bring you the unexpected. Remember to tune in, and reach out - Call us in the studio at 607-441-9734 to connect with any of our show hosts on-air.

We offer news and talk in the morning from 4am-12pm, and music from 12pm until 4am. Our new schedule that includes over 65 community DJs and show hosts and several new syndicated shows as well. Explore all our Syndicated and Local Programs and learn more about your homegrown, nonprofit, community radio station.

WRFI at Ithaca is Books

The Ithaca is Books festival is coming up, and WRFI will be there! The festival features events all over town for book lovers of all ages from September 11 to 14. Prolific author, activist, and journalist Cory Doctorow will launch the Festival this year, in conversation with TCPL Librarian Judd Karlman. Doctorow spoke with Tectonic host Mark Hurst about his new book, Enshittification: Why Everything Suddenly Got Worse and What to Do About It. Tune in to WRFI on Thursday, September 4 at 10am to hear the interview!
